

REMEMBER THE MAINE THE CRY THAT ECHOED AROUND THE WORLD

that for each of the Americans who died that night, an hundred more would march from the north to avenge their deaths. And that 10,000, 20,000, 30,000 would pay the penalty.

Event followed event with a slowness that was exasperating to an intelligent people. A few of the bodies were recovered to be buried in the government cemetery. From every part of the country the appeal of the grief-stricken relatives must necessarily be refused. There could be no Christian burial for those 260 sailors. Their tomb was the sea and their bier the battleship upon which they had served. A board of inquiry was appointed. Rear Admiral W. T. Sampson, the man who was to be the victim of circumstances in the war to follow, was made chairman. With the deliberation of serious minded men, the board heard the evidence at Key West and at the scene of the wreck. In the meantime a patriotically intoxicated country demanded war and the freedom of Cuba. Twin flags, the American and Cuban tri-colors, were hung from every post and tree. Volunteer regiments were organized and drilled. Every line of the newspapers were scanned for more information about the ill fated battleship.

The Verdict.
At last the board of inquiry reported. It was March 23, yet the Maine was still the chief topic of discussion. The finding of the board agreed with the popular verdict. The ship was blown up by an explosion from without. Things began moving more rapidly. Congressman Joseph Cannon introduced his famous $50,000,000 appropriation bill to be expended in preparation for war. The bill passed without a dissenting vote. War was inevitable. Good Pope Leo, the XIII., offered to intercede. His kindly offices were refused by President McKinley. The flying squadron sailed to sea with sealed orders. Reports of the appearance of the Spanish fleet were heard. Finally when the tension could be stood no longer, the declaration of war was issued over the signature of the beloved martyr president. This was on April 26. On May first, Admiral Dewey sailed into Manila bay and sunk the Spanish fleet. The first move in avenging the Maine had been taken. The sea and land battles around the Pearl of the Antilles followed. A war mad country was fighting to avenge the death of its countrymen.

What the War Accomplished.
The details are familiar history. Much was accomplished for the world's good by this so-called opera buffet war. Another republic was added to the roster of free nations. A group of islands in the far east were freed from the tyranny of an old world power. But best of all, was the results at home. People of one blood, one ideal, and one flag were united for the first time, by the war.

This day, February 16, is the anniversary of the birth of this new union. Twelve years ago this morning began the birth pangs which gave this country the union of the north and south. February 15, 1898, should be written in red, for it marks an epoch in United States history.

Watching a Stomach Digest Food

Was the Menus Whereby Science Made Possible the Cure of Dyspepsia.

A Trial Package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Sent Free.

The Abbe Spallanzani was the first scientist to study systematically the chemical powers of the gastric juice, but it was by the careful and convincing experiments of Beaumont that the foundation of our exact knowledge of its composition and action was laid.

Beaumont was an army surgeon, located at an obscure military post in Michigan while it was yet a territory, and was called upon to treat a gun shot wound of the stomach in a Canadian voyageur—Alexis St. Martin. When the wound healed a permanent opening was left by means of which food could be placed in the stomach and gastric juice taken from it.

Beaumont made scientific experiments with his crude means and wrote a book, which today is recognized among the classics of physiology. Science also knows what the gastric juices are and how to make them best for the system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, thanks to the poor army surgeon and Alexis St. Martin, give man a means of digesting food, replenishing the exhausted juices, soothing the nerves and correcting dyspeptic conditions of the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are natural fruit and vegetable essences reduced in concentrated form and by tremendous power compressed into a tablet. These wonderful little digestors are known all over America and Canada. Full meals have been digested by them in glass tubes and they are sold by every druggist.

Physicians to the number of 40,000 use them. They are meritorious and powerful. Go to your druggist and buy a package today, price 50c, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

CURRY AND MILLS ARE BOTH ENDORSED

Republicans of the Territory Heartily Approve Retiring and Incoming Chief Executive.

Santa Fe, N. M., Feb. 16.—Approval of the Hamilton statehood bill, and acquiescence in that portion of the Beveridge bill providing for a submission of the state constitution to congress and the president, were embodied in resolutions passed by the territorial Republican central committee in session at the capitol. Nearly every county was represented either by committee men or by proxy.

The administration of governor Curry was approved unanimously and the resolutions expressed confidence in the ability of his successor, chief justice Mills, both Curry and Mills occupying the speaker's rostrum. Governor Curry presided in the absence at Washington of chairman H. O. Bureau, who is at the national capital helping to fight for statehood.
